London – April 22, 2026

CA Auto Finance, the UK branch of CA Auto Bank, has been appointed as the exclusive financial services partner for AION Auto UK, as it enters the UK market with a promise to spearhead ‘effortless electrification’. This strategic partnership will see CA Auto Finance provide a comprehensive suite of retail and wholesale financing solutions for AION’s new range of electrified vehicles, which will be branded AION Financial Services.

The partnership aligns with CA Auto Finance’s commitment to supporting the growth of sustainable mobility. The collaboration will enable AION customers to benefit CA Auto Finance’s expertise in proposing a diverse range of bespoke financing packages.

AION is launching in the UK with a C-segment electric SUV, the AION V, which arrives with a distinctive, striking exterior, a spacious and luxurious interior fully loaded with comfort and convenience features, class-leading range and charging speed, and an industry-leading customer ownership proposition. The Customer Contact Centre will be available from 23 April, and the first dealerships will open their doors to customers at the end of May.

Jon Wakefield, Managing Director of AION Auto UK, said: “We’ve worked for over a year on planning our entry to the UK, and are determined to differentiate ourselves in offering simplicity throughout the purchase and ownership experiences. This partnership with CA Auto Finance is one example of how we are bringing that to life. From the AION V itself to the supporting ecosystem around it – including the very important acquisition and finance options – we’re driving a new standard.”

Davide Mamdouh Nageh, Director of Marketing, Insurance & Captive Business of CA Auto Finance UK, said: *“We are delighted to be the selected UK finance partner for AION as they bring a unique offering to the British market. “Providing this level of protection as an embedded feature is something virtually no other provider in the market offers. It is a powerful statement that demonstrates exactly how much AION believes in the long-term reliability and build quality of its cars. At CA Auto Finance, our goal is to match this premium-standard philosophy with straightforward, transparent financing, ensuring that customers can choose these high-specification vehicles with complete peace of mind and total confidence in their investment.”
